

DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT - SOUTHEAST

Department: Sales/Marketing

Reports To: Katie Divine – VP of Business Development

FLSA Status: Exempt

JOB SUMMARY

Come join our fun-loving, fast-paced design company!

You're ready for a new challenge—and we're excited to meet you! We're a dynamic, client-focused workplace seeking the right individual to join our sales team.

Mitsch Design is a full-service architecture, interior design, and dealership of outside the box thinkers. We can help our clients stand out from the competition with distinctive spaces that deliver memorable experiences and bring their brands to life.

For over 35 years, Mitsch Design has been an innovator. Never afraid to challenge the norm or disrupt the industry to help our clients achieve success.

We are looking for a Director of Business Development to report to our Atlanta office.

If you thrive on innovation and value the freedom to drive your own sales success, you'll appreciate being part of our creative and collaborative team. We're seeking a highly skilled and results-oriented sales professional who aligns with our culture and is eager to make an impact.

To be considered

- You must have a track record of building strong, productive customer relationships which drive repeat business and position the company for right of refusal.
- You must have keen senses about what you observe in the marketplace, be able to problem solve and navigate through those trends, and able to communicate market information and trends to an operations team.
- You must be able to hunt, find, qualify, and sell in a complex environment.
- You just be goal oriented and committed to achieving goals that you set for yourself. You must be a self-starter and motivated to achieve your objectives.
- You just be a team player; able to communicate and problem solve with a team.
- You must be able to operate with the highest level of integrity.
- You must be someone who can work independently and manage yourself while participating in a team environment.

- You must have the ability to balance and prioritize multiple projects and priorities. Able to focus on the best opportunities.
- You must be willing to travel when needed (20%).
- You must be able to demonstrate that you have excellent organization, communication, and presentation skills
